

DIRECTOR : HARRY WEINMANN

Harry Weinmann is a graduate of the California Institute of the Arts where he received a fellowship to study with Disney in the renowned character animation and film program. Other graduates have included Tim Burton and a myriad of other gifted directors.

Upon graduation Harry worked as a designer for companies such as Paramount, Disney and Warner Bros. Harry directed the short film, Succubus, which won top honours at the UK's Festival of Fantastic Films. His film was short-listed for academy award consideration in 1999 and was part of an Australian national tour of International films hosted by the Australian Film Institute and the Sundance Institute that same year. On the basis of the film he was picked up for representation by Paul Hook who is Executive Vice President of the Motion Picture Division at ICM in Los Angeles.

As well as moving Harry towards directing his first feature film ICM have been working with Harry in securing various high profile positions in which he can display his visual flair including working as a visual consultant for Disney on Raising Helen by Gary Marshall starring Kate Hudson and Helen Mirren.

Many of the images shown here have been created by Harry and form part of the storyboards for the film. Other images have been sourced from location and digital post production work already completed on the project.
